Beauty comes in all shapes and sizes. Small, large, circle, square, thin crust, thick crust, stuffed crust, extra toppings...

Last night I had a dream that I ate a ten pound marshmallow. When I woke up, my pillow was gone.

With great power comes a great electrical bill.

A Message from President Joanne Lystar

Thank you to all of the members of London Central Lions Club for your support and co-operation over the past two years. To all who have worked diligently at our fundraising activities and to each person who has contributed as they are able, my gratitude is extended. I would also like to acknowledge the extra dedication of the Board of Directors and their assistance in making decisions. As we move forward and acquire new members, please make an extra effort to welcome them and their ideas. Encourage them and embrace their suggestions. Don't be caught uttering "We've done that before. We tried and it didn't work." In order to continue as a thriving entity, a fresh perspective is often needed to bring new insights to old ideas. I have had a wonderful experience serving as your president and look forward to many more years in Lionism with you.
